A LARGE number of fraudulent land claims have lately been discovered in Dakota. It is estimated that not less than one half of the Government land disposed of in any one year is taken possession of without the proper authority. An investigation is to be made.

The Political Complexion of the Senate.
The New York Herald says: From more than one quarter comes the report that Senators Mahone and Riddleberger are "out" and will not act together. This, if true, will give a curious complexion to the Senate. As now constituted it will be composed of thirty-eight Republicans, thirty-six Democrats and two Readjusters. Small as is the majority even should both Readjusters vote with them, it will be made still more uncertain by the choice of Senator Anthony as president pro tem. The difference of opinion between Senators Mahone and Riddleberger will add a new uncertainty, so that is very doubtful if the Republicans can claim a working majority.

The Telegraph of Macon, Ga., says: "Every week there are additional evidences of the need for technical schools. A gentleman engaged in manufacturing said in our office that he had vacancies in his business that paid from $1,050 to $3,500 a year that he could not find the men in the State to fill."

It is a curious coincidence in connection with the Alfonso matter that it was on September 29, 1883, that Queen Isabella ascended to the throne of Spain. On September 29, 1869, King Alfonso's mother had to fly and take refuge in France, and in it was on September 29th that King Alfonso met the recent insults from the French crowd.

A Montana paper announces that certain places in that State, which last year were abandoned as worthless, have proved rich beyond computation. It stated that men now working the mines are taking out from $20 to $100 per day, gold nuggets having been found worth as much as $45.

They are driving piles for a wharf 1,000 feet in length just north of Town Neck, in Sandwich, Mass., for the Cape Cod Canal. Between 300 and 400 laborers are kept busy night and day, the purpose being to save the company's charter by having $25,000 worth of work done on the canal this year.

A large whale lately left landlocked in shallow water by the retreating tide and afterwards driven ashore on Burnett's Island, Acomac county, Va., has naturally attracted great number of visitors from the mainland. Among them was at least one brute, if Farmer Jones, of the steamer Helen, is to be believed when he says that on Friday last "a man was on top of the whale chipping a hole in him while the monster was still alive," the whale writhing at every blow of the axe.
